

The Japan America Society of Chicago presents: English Conversation Classes

Enjoy learning and practicing English in a small interactive group setting. All classes will be limited to six students. Students will have an opportunity to practice and improve their English conversation skills. Classes will focus on speaking and listening, while expanding students' vocabulary and ability to express themselves in English. Students will be encouraged to make suggestions about class topics, as well as have an opportunity to ask questions.

Instructors

Ms. Diana Keider

Diana Keider has been teaching ESL for over twenty years and is founder and director of ESL Associates, a language training service specializing in teaching English to foreign students. Diana is the main supervisor for all classes.

Ms. Joyce Scull

Joyce Scull has nine years experience teaching ESL to adults in a classroom setting. Joyce has taught at the College of Lake County and Harper College, as well as conducting private tutoring sessions in Japanese companies.

Ms. Trisha Rich

Trisha Rich has been teaching ESL for eleven years, mostly to corporate executives and their families. She has a BA in English from the University of Michigan, along with a TESL certification.

Ms. Lori Vose
